The 2016 Republican Presidential Primary
Debates - through CNN (Sept 16, 2015)

Overview

At the start of the 2016 Presidential debate season, the Winston Group went back to analyze the 2012 Republican primary debates, looking at topics, moderators, and question frequency for different candidates to build a picture of how the debates interacted with voter concerns during that election. Perhaps the most striking insight from an overview of 2012's debates was that though Republican primary voters consistently said (in primary exit polls and surveys) that economic issues were their top priority in determining who to vote for, questions about the economy were largely underrepresented throughout.

While it is early in the debate cycle, we continue to see that while the economy is the top issue for Republican primary voters, it continues to struggle as a question topic for debates. In the CNN debate, for every question asked about the economy, there were three questions about electability or another candidate's statements. The number of economic questions (fourth on the list of topics and about one out of nine questions asked) in the CNN debate did not come close to matching the level of priority that Republican voters have placed upon it as a concern. Similarly, in the earlier FOX debate, the economy tied with immigration in 4th place behind electability, foreign affairs, and social issues, and made up only about 8% of all questions.

Note: Due to the large number of candidates, each of the debates so far this year have been broken into two segments, with an upper and lower tier of candidates based on standing in polls.

Question Topics

Already in the debates so far, questions have ranged widely, from social issues, to foreign policy (particularly regarding negotiations with Iran and strategies regarding ISIS), to candidates' electability coming from the business world versus political experience, and more. The chart below shows the distribution of questions by topic area. These categories use the same definitions as the 2012 report; while most are fairly straightforward, a few need further definition. The "electability" topic area includes questions addressed directly to a candidate about his/her ability to attract a large portion of the electorate (for example, asking a candidate about his/her standing in the polls or statements he/she made that have raised questions), while the "other candidates" topic area refers to questions that directly ask one candidate about another candidate's past, policies, or prospects. The "for fun" topic area includes lighthearted questions aimed at letting viewers see more of a candidate's personality (such as the CNN "Secret Service codename" question).

The Economy

In recent surveys, voters have indicated that the economy and jobs are still their top concerns in thinking about how they would choose to vote for a candidate. The August 2015 New Models survey, done at the end of August, found that 38% of Republicans say jobs and the economy is their top concern.

So far, in the debates, 13 questions have been asked about the economy out of 136 total - or 9.6%. Once again, the economy and jobs seemed to be underrepresented in the debate questions, relative to the importance that voters placed on this category.

Foreign Policy

While the August New Models survey found that more Republicans consider foreign policy/national security/terrorism their top issue for choosing a candidate to vote than in 2012 (14% in 2015 as compared to 5% in New Models November 2011), it is still disproportionately represented in the debate questions, making up almost a quarter of questions asked so far. This is not unexpected due to the high profile discussion about the Iran negotiations. So, as in 2012, as issues become important world and national news, it may be expected to see additional questions asked in that area and at 22.8% of all questions, foreign policy currently far outweighs any other policy topics - only electability comes close, a topic which does not focus on any one issue or a candidate's policy in that issue area.

To Whom Were Questions Directed?

Most Frequently Questioned

In the charts below, only the candidates in the top tier debates are listed. Carly Fiorina's numbers only reflect the CNN debate, in which she was included in the top tier.

"Number of Questions" refers to questions directed by a moderator at a particular candidate, and excludes questions that were asked of all candidates. "Number of Rebuttals" includes any times the moderator addressed a follow up or rebuttal opportunity to a candidate, or a candidate broke in and gave a rebuttal to another candidate's answer on their own initiative.

While the question topic totals in the chart above include questions from the lower tier debates (to provide a broader picture of how often the moderators/networks are covering various topics), the charts below reflect only the top tier debates. Therefore, the question totals are different. "Percentage of Direct Questions" a candidate received comes from only questions directly addressed to a candidate (and excludes those addressed to all candidates), while "Percentage of Answers" includes all opportunities a candidate had to speak, as described above. The "Percentage of Answers" comes out of the total of all answers given - not the total questions asked - so once again, the totals differ.

Fiorina	-	-	3	3	3	3.5	3	6	4.4
Total	44	9	41	41	85		50	135

Of note in looking at both debates together are the length and structure of each. The CNN debate had one additional candidate, and was a much longer debate. In addition, it was much more designed to have candidates respond to one another's ideas, rather than asking standalone questions, which led to many more questions in the rebuttal category.

In terms of direct questions, as well as rebuttals asked for by the moderator, the frontrunner in the polls at the time of the CNN debate, Donald Trump, clearly had the most addressed to him across both debates, and ended the second debate a full five questions ahead of the second most-asked candidate, Jeb Bush. Additionally, as described in the next section, these two candidates also commanded the most speaking time.

In the CNN debate, the disparity in addressing questions was particularly noticeable for Walker, whose answers were solicited only three times, in comparison with Trump, who was asked for his answer 16 times.

Speaking Time

The speaking times for the top tier debates listed in the chart below are taken from NPR: CNN - <http://www.npr.org/sections/itsallpolitics/2015/09/16/440827414/on-the-clock-who-spoke-the-longest> and FOX - <http://www.npr.org/sections/itsallpolitics/2015/08/06/430153100/the-trump-show-begins>.

For the most part, the amount of time candidates spoke reflected closely the number of questions they were asked. However, some tended to give longer answers on average per question than others. Senator Paul, for example, was asked 14 questions and spoke for just over 15 minutes, while Carly Fiorina was asked only 6 questions, yet spoke for over 13 minutes.

Conclusion

As noted in the analysis of 2012's debates, the distribution of debate questions will never perfectly match voters' priorities, and presidential debates are also designed to help ensure that candidates are competent on a wide range of topics.

Still, we can already see that the debates seem to be falling into a pattern similar to 2012, when the distribution of topics didn't quite match what voters were concerned about. For the majority of voters, the economy is by far the most important issue, yet so far questions on this topic have only made up a small portion of the debates.

1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Carly, you were CEO of Hewlett-Packard. You ran for Senate and lost in California in 2010. Martha MacCallum	Fiorina

But you failed to beat Mitt Romney for the nomination. And no one here tonight is going to question your conviction or your love for country. But has your moment passed, Senator?	Bill Hemmer	Santorum
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Governor Jindal, you're one of two sitting governors on the stage tonight. But your approval numbers at home are in the mid 30s at this point. In a recent poll that showed you in a head-to-head against Hillary Clinton in Louisiana, she beat you by several points. So if the people of Louisiana are not satisfied, what makes you think that the people of this nation would be?	Martha MacCallum	Jindal
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Senator Lindsey Graham, you worked with Democrats and President Obama when it came to climate change, something you know is extremely unpopular with conservative Republicans. How can they trust you based on that record?	Bill Hemmer	Graham
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Governor Pataki, four years ago this month, you called it quits in a race for the presidency in 2012, but now you're back. Mitt Romney declined to run this time, because he believed that the party needed new blood. Does he have a point?	Martha MacCallum	Pataki

1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	You were the last person on stage to declare your candidacy. You ran for the White House once and lost. You ran for the Senate one time and lost. You haven't held public office in 13 years. Similar question, is it time for new blood?	Martha MacCallum	Gilmore
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	But he [Trump] is dominating this conversation. Governor Perry, you two have been going at it. But given the large disparity in your poll numbers, he seems to be getting the better of you.	Martha MacCallum	Perry
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Donald Trump is — there's a huge disparity between the poll numbers that you have and the poll numbers that he has, given also the fact that Rudy Giuliani said he thought that there may be some Reagan qualities to Donald Trump. Carly Fiorina, is he getting the better of you?	Martha MacCallum	Fiorina
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	This Saturday, August 8th, two days from now marks one year since the strikes began against ISIS in Iraq and followed in Syria one month later. This week, a leading general in the U.S. Marine Corps says, "One year later, that fight is at a stalemate." Governor Jindal, give me one example how your fight against ISIS would be different over there?	Bill Hemmer	Jindal
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	And the senator to your right has called for 20,000 American troops in Syria and Iraq so far today, Senator Graham, and I'll give this question to you. Why should the American people after two wars in Iraq sacrifice yet again on a third war?	Bill Hemmer	Graham
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Sixty-nine ISIS-inspired terrorists have been arrested in this country, in homeland plots, and the FBI assures us that there are likely many more to come...How far are you willing to go to root out this problem here at home? Would you put mosques, for example, potentially, under surveillance? And keep in mind that conservatives are increasingly concerned in this country with religious liberty.	Martha MacCallum	Pataki

Debate Number — Location — Date — Sponsor(s)	Question	Asker	To Whom (or to whom it was directed by moderator)
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	The FBI director Comey says that terrorists can thrive here at home because they go dark and they recruit behind the cyber walls that are built by American companies like Google and Apple. Comey says this is a big problem. Rand Paul says that the government forcing these companies to bring down those walls would be a big privacy issue and a dangerous way to go on this. You've been a tech leader in this country. Which side are you on?	Martha MacCallum	Fiorina, Gilmore
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	We often talk about this issue on the abstract level in Washington, D.C., but you know how it's being talked about in states like Iowa and New Hampshire among illegals in our country today — 11 million plus. And some are asking, what would you say to a child, born and raised in America, who could see their family broken apart by your policies?	Bill Hemmer	Santorum, Perry
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	There is an increasing willingness in this country to accept assistance. How do you get Americans who are able to take the job instead of a handout? ...Do you believe that we need to change the culture in this country in terms of whether or not we should be encouraging people to get off of it and take the job when it's available? Some are able and not doing that.	Martha MacCallum	Graham, Santorum
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	You know, based on your record and what we're discussing here, which is potentially cutting back some entitlement, cutting back benefits, it's tricky business as we all know because people will argue that that's their means to escape poverty. So they're going to look at you when you want to do that and they will call you heartless. What will you tell them?	Martha MacCallum	Gilmore
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	No Republican wins the White House unless you win here in the Buckeye state. Well, here in the Buckeye state, the Governor John Kasich took the federal money for Medicaid expansion under Obamacare. And Governor Jindal of Louisiana, you passed on those tax dollars. Why do you think Governor Kasich got it wrong here?...Governor Pataki, three term governor of New York, is he right?	Bill Hemmer	Jindal, Pataki
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Critics of the Iran deal say that it puts America on the same side as the largest state sponsor of terrorism in the world, of Hamas, of Hezbollah, of the backers of those groups of people who chant 'Death to America,' in the street, that this deal puts on that side of the equation. But our traditional Middle East allies, led by Saudi Arabia, have also funneled support to Islamic radical groups who want to kill Americans. So which side do you believe we should be on?...This is a complicated situation. Are you OK with us being on their side?	Martha MacCallum	Perry, Fiorina

Debate Number — Location — Date — Sponsor(s)	Question	Asker	To Whom (or to whom it was directed by moderator)
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	It's been 42 years, Senator Santorum, since Roe v. Wade, and many consider, in this country, to be a case of settled law. Recently the U.S. Supreme Court ruled on same-sex marriage. Is that now settled law in America today?	Bill Hemmer	Santorum
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	To Governor Gilmore. For years, presidential candidates have not said they would have a litmus test for justices nominated to the Supreme Court. Recently, Hillary Clinton broke that precedent. She said she would apply that on the case of Citizens United, which deals with campaign finance laws in America today. Is it time for conservatives to impose a litmus test on abortion?	Bill Hemmer	Gilmore
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Governor Pataki, you're the only pro-choice candidate running. A Republican holding that position has not won a single primary in 35 years. With the recent Planned Parenthood videos that we have all seen, shedding new light on abortion practices, I know that you have said that you would defund Planned Parenthood. But has this story changed your heart when it comes to abortion?	Martha MacCallum	Pataki
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Carly Fiorina, also on the stage, said that she would go so far as to shut down the government over the issue of defunding Planned Parenthood. Would you do that? Would you be willing to shut down the government when it comes to defunding this group?	Martha MacCallum	Jindal
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Lindsey Graham, this conversation will no doubt go to the war on women, and that cutting funding to this group could be a very broad brush against all of you or anybody who will hold this nomination as being against women's health, against these organizations that people will say provide positive things for many women.	Martha MacCallum	Graham
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	On the second day of his presidency, January 22nd 2009, President Obama signed one of his first executive orders. That was close Guantanamo Bay in Cuba. Still open today. What would be your first executive order?	Bill Hemmer	Gilmore, Graham, Jindal, Perry, Santorum, Fiorina, Pataki

Debate Number — Location — Date — Sponsor(s)	Question	Asker	To Whom (or to whom it was directed by moderator)
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	President Obama promised hope and change for the country, yet 60 percent of Americans are not satisfied with the shape that the country is in right now. Many think that America has lost its “can do” spirit and that it’s not the nation that it once was. On this level, Carly Fiorina, can you inspire this nation? ...how would you do it?	Martha MacCallum	Fiorina, Santorum, Graham
1A (Outside Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	I need a two-word answer to the following query. In 2008, then-Senator Barack Obama described Hillary Clinton as, quote, “likable enough,” end quote. What two words would you use to describe the Democratic frontrunner?	Bill Hemmer	Gilmore, Graham, Jindal, Perry, Santorum, Fiorina, Pataki
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Is there anyone on stage — and can I see hands — who is unwilling tonight to pledge your support to the eventual nominee of the Republican party and pledge to not run an independent campaign against that person?	Bret Baier	Trump, Bush, Walker, Huckabee, Carson, Cruz, Rubio, Paul, Christie, Kasich
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Your critics say that your inexperience shows. You've suggested that the Baltic States are not a part of NATO, just months ago you were unfamiliar with the major political parties and government in Israel, and domestically, you thought Alan Greenspan had been treasury secretary instead of federal reserve chair. Aren't these basic mistakes, and don't they raise legitimate questions about whether you are ready to be president?	Megyn Kelly	Carson
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Senator Rubio, when Jeb Bush announced his candidacy for presidency, he said this: "There's no passing off responsibility when you're a governor, no blending into the legislative crowd." Could you please address Governor Bush across the stage here, and explain to him why you, someone who has never held executive office, are better prepared to be president than he is, a man who you say did a great job running your state of Florida for eight years.	Chris Wallace	Rubio
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	But there are several opponents on this stage who get big- applause lines in early voting states with this line: quote, "the last thing the country needs is another Bush in the Oval Office." So do you understand the real concern in this country about dynastic politics?	Bret Baier	Bush
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	You've called women you don't like "fat pigs, dogs, slob, and disgusting animals."...Your Twitter account has several disparaging comments about women's looks. You once told a contestant on Celebrity Apprentice it would be a pretty picture to see her on her knees. Does that sound to you like the temperament of a man we should elect as president, and how will you answer the charge from Hillary Clinton, who was likely to be the Democratic nominee, that you are part of the war on women?	Megyn Kelly	Trump

1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Senator Cruz, your colleague, Senator Paul, right there next to you, said a few months ago he agrees with you on a number of issues, but he says you do nothing to grow the party. He says you feed red meat to the base, but you don't reach out to minorities. You have a toxic relationship with GOP leaders in Congress. You even called the Republican Senate Leader Mitch McConnell a liar recently. How can you win in 2016 when you're such a divisive figure?	Chris Wallace	Cruz
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Under your watch, New Jersey has undergone nine credit rating downgrades. The state's 44th in private sector growth. You face an employee pension crisis and the Garden State has the third highest foreclosure rate in the country. So why should voters believe that your management of the country's finances would be any different?	Bret Baier	Christie
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Would you really let a mother die rather than have an abortion, and with 83 percent of the American public in favor of a life exception, are you too out of the mainstream on this issue to win the general election?	Megyn Kelly	Walker
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Governor Huckabee, like Governor Walker, you have staked out strong positions on social issues. You favor a constitutional amendment banning same sex marriage. You favor a constitutional amendment banning abortions, except for the life of the mother. Millions of people in this country agree with you, but according to the polls, and again this an electability question, according to the polls, more people don't, so how do you persuade enough Independents and Democrats to get elected in 2016?	Chris Wallace	Huckabee
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Senator Paul, you recently blamed the rise of ISIS on Republican hawks. You later said that that statement, you could have said it better. But, the statement went on, and you said, quote, "Everything they've talked about in foreign policy, they've been wrong for the last 20 years." Why are you so quick to blame your own party?	Bret Baier	Paul
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Governor Kasich, you chose to expand Medicaid in your state, unlike several other governors on this stage tonight, and it is already over budget by some estimates costing taxpayers an additional $1.4 billion in just the first 18 months. You defended your Medicaid expansion by invoking God, saying to skeptics that when they arrive in heaven, Saint Peter isn't going to ask them how small they've kept government, but what they have done for the poor. Why should Republican voters, who generally want to shrink government, believe that you won't use your Saint Peter rationale to expand every government program?	Megyn Kelly	Kasich
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	I want to ask you about a statement that you made last year about illegal immigrants. And here's what you said. "They broke the law, but it's not a felony, it's an act of love. It's an act of commitment to your family." Do you stand by that statement and do you stand by your support for earned legal status?	Chris Wallace	Bush

1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Mr. Trump, it has not escaped anybody's notice that you say that the Mexican government, the Mexican government is sending criminals -- rapists, drug dealers, across the border...you have repeatedly said that you have evidence that the Mexican government is doing this, but you have evidence you have refused or declined to share. Why not use this first Republican presidential debate to share your proof with the American people?	Chris Wallace	Trump
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	I know you don't like to talk about Donald Trump. But I do want to ask you about the merit of what he just said. When you say that the American government is stupid, that the Mexican government is sending criminals, that we're being bamboozled, is that an adequate response to the question of illegal immigration?...Is it as simple as our leaders are stupid, their leaders are smart, and all of these illegals coming over are criminals?	Chris Wallace	Kasich, Rubio
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Governor Walker, from 2002 until as recently as 2013, just two years ago, you supported comprehensive immigration reform, including a path to citizenship. Now you say that was a quick reaction to something you hadn't really thought about, and that you've changed your mind. Other than politics, could you explain why in the last two years you've changed your position on a path to citizenship, and are there other past positions that we shouldn't hold you to?	Chris Wallace	Walker
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Senator Cruz, some 1,400 people submitted questions on this very hot topic of illegal immigration on Facebook, and a number of them were about the murder of Kate Steinle in San Francisco, allegedly shot down by an illegal. Doug Bettencourt sent this question, "will you support Kate Steinle's Law," which would impose a mandatory five-year prison term for an illegal who is deported and then returns to this country? "And will you defund sanctuary cities for violating federal law?"	Voter	Cruz
1B (Top Ten)— Cleveland, OH — 8/6/15 — Fox News/ Facebook/Ohio Republican Party	Governor Christie.
